

Things to do in Angus

With such busy lives today, more and more of us look forward to a day out or a short break to help us recharge our batteries. Angus is full to the brim with award-winning visitor attractions such as Glamis Castle. In Angus, just a few miles away from Dundee, you will find breath-taking, spectacular Highland Glens, and bracing and rugged coastlines mixed alongside quiet coastal retreats. Glamis Castle Five miles from Forfar, in the fertile valley of Strathmore, is the quaint village of Glamis. Family home of the Earls of Strathmore. Childhood home of Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth the Queen Mother, and birthplace of the present Queen's younger sister, the late Princess Margaret Rose. Legendary setting of Shakespeare's "Macbeth". Guided tours, gardens, pinetum, nature trail, shops, licenced restaurant, play-area, picnic area. Glamis is set in the rolling hills of Angus, approximately 20km from the North Sea, in an area of considerable ancient history. Whilst the village is home to a curious old stone, said to be a monument to King Malcolm II, and some attractive eighteenth-century cottages, its most notable attribute is the grandeur of Glamis Castle. The modern visitor approaching the Highland Castle for the first time cannot but draw breath in admiration as he journeys down the mile-long avenue rich in colour, flanked in spring by swathes of yellow and cream daffodils, or the colours in the rows of autumn trees.

Spires, turrets, towers and statues will seize your attention initially, but there is so much more to explore in this legendary Castle. With its strong links with history, royalty and fiction, Glamis Castle is one of Scotland's most impressive visitor attractions. Whether you choose to visit Glamis to admire its stunning architecture, to explore its history, legends and myths or to enjoy the surrounding beauty of the and grounds and gardens, you will not fail to be touched by the magic of Glamis.
